- I - Award of Silver Star, Posthumously.
- II - Award of Silver Star (Missing in Action).
- III - Award of Silver Star (Oak Leaf Cluster).
- IV - Award of Purple Heart (Oak Leaf Cluster).
- V thru VII - Award of Purple Heart.
- VIII - Rescission.

I. AWARD OF SILVER STAR, POSTHUMOUSLY: By direction of the President, under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-45, dated 22 September 1943, as amended, the Silver Star Medal is awarded, posthumously, to the following named personnel:

MD 318
Albert D. Goldfarb, 13179360, Tec 5, MD, 318th Infantry, Army of the United States. For gallantry in action in Germany on 31 March 1945, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. On 31 March 1945, Tec 5 Goldfarb, an aid man, was attached to a rifle company which assaulted enemy positions near Nieder Mollrich, Germany. Throughout the attack he efficiently rendered aid to the wounded despite the intense fire covering the area. During the battle a wounded man fell in an exposed position on a barren knoll. Although warned against doing so, Tec 5 Goldfarb, with little thought for his own safety, ran to the wounded man and began to give aid when he was mortally wounded. The courage and supreme devotion to duty displayed by Tec 5 Goldfarb exemplify the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from Pennsylvania. MAN

Leroy E. Jubela, 38676272, Pvt, Co F, 317th Infantry, Army of the United States. For gallantry in action in France on 26 November 1944, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. While Pvt Jubela and a comrade were digging in on a hill near Folschviller, France, on 26 November 1944, the enemy discovered their position and fired an artillery and mortar concentration into the area. As their foxhole was not deep enough for protection Pvt Jubela deliberately covered his comrade with his body in attempting to shield him from the shell fragments. A mortar shell landed close to the two men, mortally wounding Pvt Jubela, but only slightly wounding the man he shielded. The courage, unselfishness, and loyal devotion to his comrade displayed by Pvt Jubela exemplify the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from Texas. Recon NOV

3 Lt Clark
Philip L. Llewellyn, 33323480, T Sgt, Hq Co 2d Bn, 318th Infantry, Army of the United States. For gallantry in action in Germany on 2 April 1945, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. During an attack near Kassel, Germany, on 2 April 1945, the anti-tank platoon in which T Sgt Llewellyn served as platoon sergeant was fired on by six enemy tanks as the anti-tank guns were being emplaced. In order to protect the guns and to effectively return the enemy fire the platoon leader ordered a withdrawal to a more advantageous firing position. T Sgt Llewellyn voluntarily AK manned a .50 calibre machine gun and in the face of direct fire from the enemy tanks effectively protected the withdrawal of the rest of the platoon. In the action he was mortally wounded. T Sgt Llewellyn's courage, initiative, and supreme devotion to duty exemplify the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from Pennsylvania.

II. AWARD OF SILVER STAR (MISSING IN ACTION): By direction of the President, under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-45, dated 22 September 1943, as amended, the Silver Star Medal is awarded the following named personnel (Missing in Action):

Copied Pershing F. Dennis, 34999515, Sgt, Co K, 317th Infantry, Army of the United States. For gallantry in action in Germany on 13 March 1945, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. On 13 March 1945, the platoon in which Sgt Dennis served as a rifleman went to the support of troops assaulting Greimerath, Germany, but were delayed by intense concentrations of artillery, mortar, nebelwerfer, and small arms fire. Through this intense fire Pfc Dennis and six comrades advanced over two hundred yards to reach and aid the advance elements in clearing and securing a foothold in the town. Lacking communication with higher headquarters, Pfc Dennis voluntarily returned through the intense fire with a message after which he returned to report his mission completed. The capture of Greimerath destroyed the German army reserve line and opened a vital evacuation, supply, and communications center for our troops. Pfc Dennis' courage, initiative, and loyal devotion to duty contributed immeasurably to the success of the mission and are in keeping with the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from Alabama. Mar

Haakon M. Ojard, 37581449, S Sgt, Co B, 317th Infantry, Army of the United States. For gallantry in action in France on 3 December 1944, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. During an attack near Machern, France, on 3 December 1944, the company in which S Sgt Ojard served as an automatic rifleman was delayed by intense enemy machine gun fire. Crawling forward with utter disregard for his own personal safety S Sgt Ojard reached a position from which he destroyed the gun and crew with a single burst of his automatic rifle thus permitting the company to advance. His courage, initiative, and sincere devotion to duty exemplify the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from Minnesota. Dec

III. AWARD OF SILVER STAR (OAK LEAF CLUSTER): By direction of the President, under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-45, dated 22 September 1943, as amended, in addition to the Silver Star Medal previously awarded, a bronze Oak Leaf Cluster is awarded the following named personnel:

Daniel H. Simmons, 01049647, 1st Lt, 318th Infantry, Army of the United States. For gallantry in action in Germany on 4 April 1945, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. During the fight for Kassel, Germany, on 4 April 1945, Lt Simmons, a rifle platoon leader, discovered a strategic bridge held by the enemy which formed the only escape route for enemy troops in the north and northwestern part of the city. Leading his platoon in a brilliant surprise attack he captured the bridge intact and supervised the removal of demolition charges from its supports. During the night Lt Simmons captured over two hundred enemy soldiers as they attempted to escape over the bridge and thus greatly speeded the occupation of the city. The courage, initiative, and skillful leadership displayed by Lt Simmons exemplify the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from Pennsylvania.
